

RECREATION CENTERS

places to play

places to learn • places to work • places to play • places to learn • places to work • places to play • places to learn • places to work • places to learn

places to learn • places to work • places to play • places to learn • places to work • places to play • places to learn • places to work • places to learn

Fairfield Community Arts Center

Fairfield, Ohio

Client	• City of Fairfield
Contact	• James Bell, Director of Parks & Recreation 513.896.8187
Budget	• $9.6 million
Completion	• 2005

The Fairfield Community Center is the exciting new cultural addition to the City. A dramatic two story, daylight galleria/lobby welcomes patrons to the 250 seat flexible performance theater, art gallery, arts and crafts studio and classrooms.

In addition, the 39,000 s.f. center contains a multipurpose room, three conference/community meeting rooms, a children's center, and senior activity area.

In association with John Poe Architects

BARKER RINKER SEACAT
ARCHITECTURE

